

Job Opening: Communication Director at Patriots for Europe Foundation

The Patriots for Europe Foundation announces the opening for the position of Communication Director based in our Brussels office. We are seeking a dynamic and qualified individual to join our fabulous team and contribute to our mission to make Europe great again.

About the Role

As Communication Director, you will define and implement the Foundation's communication strategy across all channels. You will oversee messaging, media relations, digital presence, and internal coordination to ensure clear, consistent and impactful communication aligned with the Foundation's values and objectives.

This is a full-time job based in Brussels, Belgium, requiring a proactive leader with strong political awareness, excellent writing skills and the ability to manage complex communication projects in a fast-paced environment.

Key Requirements

- Eligibility: Must have the right to work in the European Union.
- Education: A high school degree is required.
- Experience: Proven professional experience in communication, public affairs, media relations, or a similar role.
- Language Skills: Excellent written and oral proficiency in English. Additional EU languages are highly desirable.

Responsibilities

- Define and implement the Foundation's overall communication strategy
- Manage and coordinate digital communication channels
- Coordinate with internal teams, external partners, and stakeholders to support the Foundation's activities and campaigns.
- Monitor media coverage and political communication trends relevant to the Foundation's mission

How to apply

If you are passionate about the future of the nations of Europe and have skills to excel in this role, please submit your CV and a cover letter detailing your relevant experience to contact@pfe-foundation.eu before the deadline on the 1st of February 2026. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

We look forward to hearing from you!